SPECIAL SKILLS

- After booking a job working with a teleprompter, I learned that I'm quite good with Medical Terminology — maybe because my dad's a doctor and I used to work in a Malaria lab at NIH in Bethesda, MD (my hometown). I regularly brush up on my teleprompter skills.
- I love, love, love to dance. I'm not trained, but can cut it up on the dance floor – I tell the fellas, if they don't dance, just keep on walkin'. Plus I'm currently taking a hip-hop class at my local gym, called 2Fly (gotta love that name!) I can carry a tune, too.
- I adore doing accents and have particular fun with West Indian, Southern and British accents (British is my bloody favorite!). I can learn lines in Spanish too and have been complimented on my accent.
